

LENORA COULTER

Oct. 1, 1933- Nov. 5, 2021

Lenora Coulter, 88, of New Sharon, died Nov. 5, at Shiloh Nursing and Rehab Center in Springdale, AR. A graveside service will be held at Sixteen Cemetery near Thornburg at 10 a.m, November 15. Rather than flowers, Lenora asked for donations to the food bank at the What Cheer United Methodist Church (<https://www.foodbankiowa.org>), Love INC of Mahaska County (<https://www.loveincmahaska.org/volunteer>) or to the Lacey United Methodist Church. Holland-Coble Funeral Home at What Cheer is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Coulter was born October 1, 1933, in Tilton, the daughter of Vernon and Lena McCulley. She was a 1951 graduate of What Cheer High School.

September 29, 1951, she was united in marriage to James "Jim" Coulter at the Little Brown Church in Nashua. Soon after, the couple began farming. Several years later the couple started a Standardbred Race Horse Stable. Lenora was an active partner in both farming and racing.

She is survived by her children; Diana (Randy) Fuqua of Springdale AR and Janna (Jim) Hawkins of Laguna Vista, TX; a son, Rodney (Victoria) Coulter of Warner Robins, GA; her sister, Phyllis Gresham; five grandchildren Candra, Lendee, Brent, Anthony and Amber; and 4 great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, husband, sister Neva and grandson Travis.
