

Wilma Agnes Hutchinson

Grinnell Register

10 Aug 1916

Wilma Agnes Hutchinson.

Wilma Agnes Hutchinson, little 16 months old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hutchinson, living on a farm between Newton and Kellogg died Tuesday. The little girl was only ill a few days, the cause of her death being ilia colitis. After a brief funeral service at the home yesterday the body was brought to Grinnell where Rev. Robert Lincoln conducted the services from the Friends church. Interment was in Hazelwood.

There's a pair of little hands laid to rest ever more,
There's two pearly dimpled cheeks
Whose blossoming is o'er.
Angel's bore her safely home
So for her we will not weep
Tiny windows of the soul
Little baby gone to sleep.
