

ObituariesLinda Sue DeBoef

May 26, 1953 - Aug. 25, 2022

Linda DeBoef, 69 of New Sharon passed away August 25, 2022 at her home in New Sharon. Services will be at 10:30 a.m. September 3, at the Lighthouse Church in New Sharon.

Visitation will be at 12 p.m. September 2, at the Lighthouse Church in New Sharon with the family present from 5 to 7 p.m. to greet friends and relatives. Memorial contributions may be made to the The Legacy Home Orphanage in the Philippines. Holland-Coble Funeral Home of New Sharon is in charge of the service arrangements.

Linda Sue DeBoef was born to Donald and Joyce (Scott) Baker on May 26, 1953 in Houston, Texas. Upon graduation from Oskaloosa High School in 1972, she attended the Apostolic Bible Institute in Oakdale, MN. Linda was united in marriage to the love of her life, Duane DeBoef, on April 6, 1974, and the two made their home in various cities across Iowa, Illinois, and Texas. A mother of six, Linda was a homemaker for most of her life and kept busy taking care of her large family.

Linda was multi-talented and loved to play the piano and paint. From 1996-2000 she had the unique experience of serving as a D.J. for KCWN radio station in Pella where she was best known for her hit show "Linda Sue from 10 to 2." She was a whiz in the kitchen and enjoyed cooking and baking for her ever-expanding family, The Coffee Closet. She lived for camping, traveling the world, and riding motorcycles with Duane and their biker gangs. Family was the joy of Linda's life, and she cherished spending time with them (especially her grandchildren).

Linda was preceded in death by her parents, Donald and Joyce Baker, parents-in-love, Arthur, Jeanetta, and Velma DeBoef, and her daughter, Carol "Angel" Fischer.

Linda's legacy is honored today by her husband, Duane DeBoef of New Sharon; her children, Jeanetta (Dan) Anderson of Independence, KS, D.J. (Tamara) DeBoef of Ankeny, Dusty (Dawn) DeBoef of New Sharon, Derrick (Danielle) DeBoef of Geneseo, IL and Delayna (Eric) Sneed of New Sharon; her son-in-law, Scott Fischer; 17 and dozens of adopted grandchildren at the Legacy Home Orphanage in the Philippines; her brothers, Kelly (Cheri) Baker of Waukee and Lonnie Baker of the Quad Cities; and many other relatives and friends.