

Monica C. Jarboe, 81

Monica C. Jarboe, 81, of La Crescenta, Calif., and formerly of Grinnell, died Oct. 30, 2007, in California.

A funeral mass was held at 10:30 a.m. on Tuesday, Nov. 6, at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Grinnell with the Rev. William Reynolds presiding. Organist was Marilyn Kriegel. Choir music was performed by members of the Dayton family. Pallbearers were John Noble, Trevor Linn, Michael and David Jarboe, Eric Berger, and Timothy Thompson. Honorary bearer was Jeff Linn. Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.

A scripture service was held at 7:30 p.m. Monday at the Smith Funeral Home.

Memorial contributions may be directed to ALS (Lou Gehrig's disease).

The daughter of Patrick and Susannah Hauersperger Gallagher, she was born Dec. 26, 1925, in Guernsey. She was a graduate of Brooklyn High School.

On Feb. 20, 1946, she was married to John E. Jarboe in Brooklyn. The couple lived in Grinnell, and later moved to La Crescenta in 1957. She was a retail buyer for Ivers Department Store in La Canida, Calif. She was an active member of St. James the Less Catholic Church in La Crescenta, and the Los Angeles Dodgers Booster Club.

Survivors include three children, Shirley Noble, Patrick (Jo Ann) Jarboe, and Susan (Jeff) Linn, all of La Crescenta; seven grandchildren, Stacy Thompson of Orange, Calif., Stephanie Berger of Newport Coast, Calif., John Noble of Pacific Beach, Calif., Trevor Linn of Burbank, Calif., Michael Jarboe of La Crescenta, Calif., Erin Linn of San Diego, Calif., and David Jarboe of La Crescenta, Calif.; five great-grandchildren, Ryan and Catherine Thompson, and Emily, Reece and Cooper Berger; one brother, Charles Gallagher of Sylmar, Calif.; and two sisters, Leota Schwerts of Hiawatha, and Agnes Irving of Sandpoint, Idaho.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; one son-in-law, Fred Noble; and two brothers, Frances and Raphael Gallagher.

BC 11/7/07