
A funeral service was held Thursday, June 7, at Grinnell United Methodist Church with the Rev. Raymond Lott officiating. Casket bearers were her grandsons, Brian Collum, Christopher Collum, Darin Collum, Vic Fritz, Dustin Moore, Matthew Moore, Michael Moore and Thomas Moore. Interment was in Hazelwood Cemetery. Memorials may be made to the Evelyn Moore Memorial Fund. Online condolences may be submitted to the family on the Smith Funeral Home website, www.smithfh.com.

She was born July 13, 1923, near Oskaloosa, the daughter of Jay William and Vina May Woods Latcham. She was raised and educated in Gibson and graduated with the Gibson High School class of 1941. She then attended William Penn College in Oskaloosa. She was united in marriage with Thomas Messenger Moore on Nov. 8, 1942, at her family home near What Cheer. To this union were born five children, Terry, Ann, Thomas, A. Russell and John. The couple made their home in Grinnell following their marriage, and she was employed as an obstetrical technician at Grinnell Regional Medical Center for over 40 years.

She was a member of the Grinnell United Methodist Church for over 40 years, and a member of T.H.E.O.S., a national organization supporting widows and widowers. She enjoyed cooking, reading, gardening, bird watching, especially hummingbirds, car rides with her grandson Brian, and was an avid Chicago Cubs fan. She looked forward to family events when she could spend time with her grandchildren and great grandchildren.

She is survived by her children Terry Collum, Scotch Grove, Iowa; Ann Wright of Brooklyn; Thomas Jay Moore of Griswold; A. Russell Moore of Oak Harbor, Wash., and John Moore of Grinnell; 11 grandchildren, and six great grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband Thomas A. Moore on Nov. 4, 1976, and her brothers and sisters, Reynolds, Latcham, Russell Latcham, Delmar Latcham, Margaret Edmundson, Jean Putnam and J.W. Latcham.
