Tressa Snook

Tressa Snook, 62, of Searsboro, died on Wednesday, July 26, 2023, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Friends and family were invited to a graveside service held at 10 a.m. Monday, July 31, at the Masonic Cemetery in Montezuma.

Memories and condolences may be shared with Tressa's family online at www.smithfh.com. Smith Funeral Home and Crematory has been entrusted with the service arrangements.

Tressa was born on May 31, 1961, in Eldora, Iowa to James F. and Mary Figland Stevens. She was raised in rural Lynnville and graduated from Lynnville-Sully High School. She received her Associates Degree from Ellsworth Community College. She married Ronald Case, and they had three daughters. She was later divorced and lived in Searsboro, where she raised her three girls.

She worked at Delong's Sportswear, RS Stover and Company, Farmer Nick's and other jobs throughout her life. She loved to crochet; she made many afghans and dolls for her kids, grandkids and friends. She also enjoyed spending time at Meskwaki Casino and Hotel with friends. She loved watching her grandchildren grow.

Tressa is survived by her daughters, Tabitha Kriegel of Grinnell, Tricia Walker of Searsboro and Tonja Case of Lubbock, Texas; and eight grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, and siblings Rose Emery and Jim Stevens.
