

Maud Halstead

09/06/1889—01/10/1931

Grinnell Herald, Jan 13, 1931

Grinnell Register, Jan 13, 1931

Mrs. Raymond Halstead Is Buried Here

Funeral services for Mrs. Raymond Halstead, a former resident of Grinnell who died in Des Moines Saturday, were held from the Dunn Funeral home in Des Moines yesterday morning. The body was brought to Grinnell and brief graveside services, conducted by Rev. E. M. Vittum, were held yesterday afternoon at Hazelwood cemetery.

Maude Louise Humbert was born in Armour, S. Dak., Sept. 6, 1889 and moved to Grinnell with her parents when a small girl. She attended Grinnell High School and graduated from the Conservatory of Music at Drake.

She was married on July 3, 1917 to Raymond Halstead and spent her married life in Des Moines. Four children were born to this union. They were: Jeanette, Mary Louise, Raymond Humbert and Richard Cooper.

Mrs. Halstead was a member of the First Methodist church at Des Moines.

Leonard Halstead and Mrs. Joe Schultz of this city are a brother and sister, respectively of Raymond Halstead.

Relatives and friends from out of town who were here to attend the funeral were: Miss Donna Robison of Wisconsin; Mrs. M. H. Pollard of Lincoln, Nebr.; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Fisher of Hedrick; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Lutes, of Kellogg; and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Paul of Des Moines.

MRS. HALSTEAD PASSES AWAY AT DES MOINES

Former Grinnell Lady Dies Saturday After Long Illness.

Mrs. Maude Humbert Halstead, 40, of Des Moines, a former Grinnell girl, died at her home in Des Moines Saturday after a lingering illness. She has been in a critical condition for the past three weeks. Surviving her are her husband, Raymond Halstead, and four children, ranging from six to twelve years of age.

Funeral services were held from the Dunn funeral home in Des Moines this morning at 10:00 a. m. and the funeral party came by auto to this city this afternoon. After brief services at the grave conducted by the Rev. E. M. Vittum the body was interred at Hazelwood.

Des Moines Register, Jan 12, 1931

MRS. HALSTEAD'S FUNERAL TODAY

Des Moines Woman Will Be Buried in Grinnell.

Funeral services for Mrs. Ray W. Halstead, 40, 844 Fortieth st., who died at her home Saturday, are to be held at 10:30 a. m. today at Dunn's funeral home. The Rev. Charles S. Medbury will officiate. Burial will be at Grinnell.

Mrs. Halstead was a graduate of Drake conservatory of music. She was a member of the First Methodist church, Parent-Teacher association and the woman's auxiliary of the Des Moines Credit Men's association.

Surviving are her husband, two sons, Raymond and Richard; two daughters, Jeanette and Mary Louise, and her mother, Mrs. J. D. Humbert, all of Des Moines.