

Doris Loving, 77

Doris Loving, 77, of Glen Allen Va., formerly of Montezuma, passed away Tuesday, Jan. 8, 2008 at the Henrico Doctors Hospital in Richmond Va. A graveside service was held on Monday, Jan. 14, at Golden Rod Cemetery in Deep River with Pastor Ester Brown, of the Deep River Nazarene Church, officiating. Holland-Coble Funeral Home in Montezuma was in charge of the arrangements. Memorials may be made to Henrico County Fire Department.

Doris Alene Loving, daughter of Burton and Ella Beason Stanford, was born April 7, 1930, in Montezuma. She graduated from Montezuma High School in 1947. Doris married Raymond Schlesselman in 1947. Together they farmed for nearly 20 years. After farming, Doris went to work for Montezuma Manufacturing and was the fourth employee hired by the company. Raymond preceded her in death in 1988. Doris was remarried in 1990 to Warren "Bud" Loving. In 2000, Doris retired from Montezuma Manufacturing. A couple of years later, she moved to Glen Allen, Va., to be closer to her family. Doris was a member of the Ladies Auxiliary in Deep River. She enjoyed bowling, any type of card game, bingo and, most of all, going to Meskwaki Casino in Tama.

Her memory is honored by a daughter, Barbara (Bill) Iles of Glen Allen, Va.; a son, Leroy (Julie) Schlesselman of Myrtle Beach, S.C.; two granddaughters, Jennifer (Todd) Vogel of Glen Allen, Va., and Ashley Schlesselman of Iowa City; a great-granddaughter, Kira Vogel, and a sister, Aleta (Bob) DeHoeidt of Barnes City.

Doris was preceded in death by her parents and two husbands, Raymond Schlesselman and Warren "Bud" Loving.
