

Dorman Brush

Dorman Brush, 57, of LeGrand died suddenly Saturday, Sept. 20, at Eldorado Regional Healthcare Center in Eldorado, Kan.

Funeral services were held Saturday, Sept. 27, at LeGrand Friends Church with Pastor Alan Mullikin officiating. Burial took place in Pleasant Hill Cemetery north of LeGrand. A memorial fund has been established.

He was born Nov. 19, 1950, in Marshalltown, the son of Rex and Alenis Van Wyk Brush. He was a 1969 graduate of LeGrand High School and attended Iowa State University in Ames. On July 22, 2006, he was united in marriage with Diana Smith in LeGrand. He was a long-time resident of the LeGrand community where he farmed and owned a trucking company as well as selling NK Seed for 30-plus years. He previously was married for 27 years to Pamela Johnson.

He was an active member of the LeGrand Friends Church; had served on the stewardship board of the Iowa Yearly Meeting of Friends, and was a great supporter of the LeGrand community. He treasured his family and time spent with friends; was an Iowa State fan, and enjoyed his lake home at Lake Ponderosa at Montezuma.

He is survived by his wife, Diana; his daughters and sons, Marti Wojcik of Ankeny, Kori Doty and Kristi Flanagan of Grinnell, and Sky and Dalton Smith at home; ten grandchildren; and one sister Sandra Devick of Polk City. He was preceded in death by his parents.

GHR 9/29/08