

James Calderwood, 66

James Calderwood, age 66, of Brooklyn, died Sunday morning, Aug. 2, 2009, at Brooklyn Community Estate following a brief illness. Per his wishes, there will be no services. Kloster Funeral Home, Brooklyn, is in charge of arrangements.

He is survived by a nephew, Erick Calderwood; two nieces, Kim Irlbeck and Laura Calderwood; and a sister-in-law, Judy Calderwood; all of Brooklyn.

He was preceded in death by his parents; a brother, Charles; and a brother in infancy.

James was born Dec. 14, 1942, in Grinnell, the son of Andrew and Helen McKeag Calderwood. He graduated from BGM High School and served in the U.S. Navy for four years. He worked for 37 years at Maytag in Newton, and also farmed for many years. He retired in 2001. James enjoyed fishing and hunting. He loved to watch the Iowa Hawkeye football games, and take leisurely rides in the country.

Online condolences may be extended to the family via the website www.klosterfuneral-home.com.

PCCR
Aug 5, 2009