

Glenn F. Steele, 81

Graveside services were held on Jan. 10, 2009, at Oakwood Memorial Park in Chatsworth, Calif., for Glenn Steele of Simi Valley, Calif., following a Celebration of Life, luncheon and fellowship at Sepulveda Church of Christ.

Glenn Franklin Steele, son of Roy B. and Orpha L. (Miller) Steele, was born Feb. 8, 1927, at the old Steele homestead in Poweshiek County, near Montezuma.

He attended Union #5 rural school and high school in Montezuma. After graduation, he entered the U.S. Army, serving in the Medical Corps. After the war ended, he spent time around his home and Fort Madison before moving to California.

Glenn was united in marriage to Dolores Vaughn at the Church of Christ, Lynwood, Calif., in 1956. They lived most of their married life in Simi Valley, where they raised their two sons.

He is survived by his wife, Dolores; two sons, Russell (Cindy) of Elk, Wash., and Darrell (Lacaya) of Woodinville, Wash.; six grandsons and one granddaughter; two brothers, Arthur of Fort Madison, and Larry of Montezuma.

Glenn was preceded in death by his parents; and older brothers, Marven, Wesley, and Aldon Steele.
