

GRINNELL, IOWA, I

OBITUARY

CARL ADAMSON
H-R 1-31-57

Carl Reynolds Adamson, son of William H. and Josephine Iowa Adamson, was born in Cincinnati, Iowa, April 7, 1892. He grew to manhood in southern Iowa and attended the public schools of the day.

On September 22, 1926 he was united in marriage to Sophia M. Yeager, at Unionville, Missouri. They have one daughter, Carol Sue.

Mr. Adamson came to Grinnell in 1936, and he had made his home here ever since. He worked in several places and was employed at the college for a number of years.

About two years ago, he became afflicted with an illness which gradually took his strength, and he passed away Friday, January 25, 1957, nearly 65 years of age.

He is survived by his companion of the home, Sophia M. Adamson, his daughter, Carol Sue, one brother, Lloyd Adamson of Keliogg, Iowa; an aunt, Mrs. Gertrude Adamson, Grinnell; one niece, Mrs. Shirley Kocyon, Los Angeles, California, and several cousins and many friends.

His home and family were his love and interest as he enjoyed life in his country and among his friends.
