

Adkins Killed In 'Cycle Crash

Alvin H. Adkins, 55, of Rte. 2, Grinnell, was killed in a motorcycle accident Saturday morning in Emerald Township, Croix County, Wisconsin, near Baldwin, Wis.

According to Wisconsin authorities, Adkins was proceeding south on his motorcycle on Highway 63 in Croix County approaching county Road G when a car approached Highway 63 on the county road and pulled into the intersection in front of Adkins. Adkins' motorcycle struck the car.

The son of Horace J. and Alys L. Tarvestad Adkins, Mr. Adkins was born Nov. 24, 1917, on the family farm in Jasper County. He attended Rock Creek No. 5 rural school.

During World War II, Mr. Adkins served with the U.S. Army. Mr. Adkins lived most of his life in and near Grinnell. He had recently been associated with Jasper County Bridge Construction. He was a former member of the Isaac Walton League in Newton.

Survivors include two sisters—Miss Ruth E. Adkins of Rte. 2, Grinnell, and Mrs. George (Patricia L.) Christinson of Grinnell; an aunt, Mrs. Kitchel F. Andre of Grinnell, and four nephews—Thomas L. Smith of Rte. 2, Patrick L. Smith, Chris L. Christinson and Gary L. Christinson, all of Grinnell.

Mr. Adkins was preceded in death by his father in 1960, his mother in 1963, and a niece, Lisa Kay Christinson, Feb. 25, 1966.

Funeral services for Mr. Adkins will be held at 1:30 p.m. tomorrow (Tuesday, July 17) at the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. Morris Hay, pastor of the Hickory Grove E.U.B. church officiating.

Organist will be Mrs. Willard Heffner.

Pallbearers will be Loren Elliott, Harold Jackson, Dale May, Glen Phipps, Bernard Young, and Olaf Young.

Burial will be in the Rock Creek cemetery west of Grinnell.

Friends may call at the Smith Funeral Home.
