

MONTEZUMA REPUBLICAN . .

NOV. 5, 1959

Life Outlined Of Henry Ahlsclager

Henry, son of Ferdinand and Mary Ahlsclager, was born on a farm near Illinois City, Illinois, on Oct. 26, 1888, and died on Oct. 31, in Oskaloosa, Iowa, at seventy-one years of age.

AHLSCLAGER

When a child, he moved with his parents to Muscatine, Iowa, where he attended the local school and graduated the Business College of Muscatine.

On October 19, 1910, he was united in marriage with Della Majaffey, to this union, five children were born.

Their entire married life of 49 years was spent in the Barnes City community. They farmed for a number of years and about 16 years ago, moved to their present home in Barnes City. The last few years he has been engaged in carpentering.

Henry was a member of Tennyson Lodge 530, AF and AM, of Barnes City.

He was preceded in death by his son, Allen. He is survived by his wife and four daughters; Nina Spake, Ruth of Montezuma, and Mable Wymore, of Wichita, Kan.; one daughter - in - law, Alberta Ahlsclager, of Olds, twelve grandchildren and one great grandson; two sisters, Nellie Toborg, of Marshalltown and Helen Ahlsclager, of Des Moines, other relatives and many friends.

Funeral services were held of Grinnell, and a great grandmother, Mrs. Frank Schultz, Malcom.