

(Perry)

Mabel L. Akre

Mabel L. Akre, 86, of 700 James Ave., Mankato, Minn., died Wednesday, June 21, at the Mankato House Health Care Center where she had lived since December.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday in Mankato, with burial in Hazelwood Cemetery in Grinnell.

The daughter of Ole B. and Olene J. Bakken Johnson, she was born April 23, 1903, in Tracy, Minn. She was married to Perry Akre June 6, 1934, in Maynard, Minn. Mrs. Akre had lived in Mankato since 1950 and previously lived in Tracy, Jackson, Waterloo and Des Moines.

She was employed as a cook at Bathany Lutheran College for a number of years. She attended Lutheran Normal School in Madison, Minn. She was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church where she taught Sunday school and belonged to the Ladies Auxiliary.

Surviving are a daughter, Belva Peterson of rural Glencoe, Minn.; four grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and one brother, Melvin Johnson of Colorado Springs, Colo.