

Mr. Altenhofen rites today

Keith Altenhofen, 61, of Rte. 1, Kellogg, died Thursday, Nov. 1, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services for Mr. Altenhofen were conducted at 10:30 a.m. today at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church in Newton, with the Rev. E. William Kaska officiating. The Rosary was recited at 7:30 p.m. Sunday at the Reese Chapel in Newton.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. John Altenhofen, he was born on Dec. 19, 1922, at Harper. He was a World War II veteran of the Army Air Corps. He operated furniture stores in Grinnell, Signourney and Spencer before moving to Newton where he owned the Newton Furniture Co.

He was a member of the Sacred Heart Catholic Church and Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 1655 in Newton.

Survivors include his wife, Ann Ruth; four sons, Tim of Newton, Gary of Spencer, Mike of Ames and Tom of rural Kellogg; three daughters, Sharon Stadsbold of Spencer, Twila Rush of Minneapolis, Minn., and Cindy Peterson of Peoria, Ill.; six grandchildren; two brothers, Maurice of Russell and LaVonne of Harper; and his mother, Emma Altenhofen of Keota.

He was preceded in death by his father; infant twin granddaughters; one brother, Donovan; and one sister, Theola Yoder.