Mrs. Joseph Ammann
Was Sunday School
Teacher 40 Years

Alma Beryl, daughter of Willard and Mary Dunton, was born near Guernsey Aug. 9, 1883 and died at her home in Montezuma, Dec. 9, following a short illness.

While still a small child, with her parents she moved to a farm south of Brooklyn where she grew to womanhood. She attended the nearby country school and was graduated from Brooklyn high. After completing her education she taught in the public schools for several years.

She was united in marriage with Joseph S. Ammann Feb. 12, 1907. They established their home in Scott township and resided there until his death in 1935. They were the parents of four children, three of whom survive: Edward M. Ammann, Margaret Peters and Helen Johnston, all of Montezuma. She also leaves six grandchildren and eight great grandchildren; a brother, Delbert Dunton, Plymouth; three sisters, Miss Olive Dunton, Montezuma, Mrs. Elza Goodlow, Deep River, and Mrs. Sidney Mathisen, Lehigh Acres, Fla; many other relatives and friends.

In 1936 she moved to the home of her parents in Brooklyn and assisted in their care in their declining years. Following their death she acquired a home in Montezuma and resided here thereafter. She was a member of the Methodist church since childhood and for 40 years was a teacher in the Sunday school.
