

Services Held Saturday For Ed Anderson

Funeral services were held at the Bramer's Funeral Home at Brooklyn for Ed (Andy) Anderson, Saturday, August 6th. He died at his son's home in Des Moines after a lingering illness.

Ed Anderson was born to William and Clarisa Anderson on Dec. 11th, 1863, at Mitchell, South Dakota and with his family, moved to Brooklyn when still a child.

He had most of his schooling and spent most of his early manhood around Brooklyn and vicinity. He married Mary Katherine Holdsworth in 1888 and to this union was born seven children.

He was a cattle buyer around Brooklyn and Kellogg for years, then he and his family moved to Des Moines where he still lived until he died. He also spent a few years in the home of a son, Clark, in Grinnell.

His wife and two sons, Willie and Ross, preceded him in death. For the past five years he was entirely blind.

Mourning his passing are five children, Clark of Grinnell, Clifford, Frank and Isabelle of Des Moines and Mae of Council Bluffs, a sister, Hannah Gale of California, 13 grand children and 19 great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were six grandsons, William (Bill) Anderson, Robert Anderson, Harold Anderson, Edgar Anderson, Wilbur (Web) Anderson and Everett Anderson.
