

Fred Anderson

Fred Greer Anderson, 96, of Gilman died at his home Monday, Jan. 1, 1995.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at the Gilman Community Church, with the Rev. Richard Gamble officiating. Organist was Ron Rainey, and pallbearers were William Kyle, Sean Lawyer, Allen Petersen, and Andrew, Benjamin and Richard Stonewall.

Burial was in Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman.

He was the son of Thomas W. and Mary Phipps Anderson and was born May 12, 1899, in Grassy Creek, N.C. He moved with his family to Newburg and attended school there.

On Sept. 11, 1926, he was married to Gertrude Gummert in Des Moines. They lived in Newburg until moving to Gilman in 1942.

Mr. Anderson was a longtime businessman in Newburg and Gilman where he operated a car garage and worked as a mechanic. While in Newburg, he also drove a school bus for 17 years and ran a threshing and corn-shelling business during the Depression.

He was a member of the Gilman Odd Fellows Lodge and the Moose and Eagles lodges in Marshalltown. He served on the Gilman Telephone Board.

Surviving are his children, Dorothy Buschbom of Marshalltown, Carroll "Bud" of Gilman, Larry of Canton, Mich., and Joan Kyle of Gilman; four grandchildren; three step-grandchildren; two great-grandchildren and three step-great-grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by his parents, his wife, four brothers and six sisters.

A Fred G. Anderson Memorial Fund has been established.