Roy Anderson, 81, of Rte. 1, Traer, died late Wednesday, July 10, at Allen Memorial Hospital in Waterloo. He had been in failing health the past year.

The son of Charles Berton and Rebecca E. Centers Anderson, he was born near Livonia, Mo., on Dec. 29, 1892. He attended rural schools near the family home and at the age of 14 came to Iowa to work on farms.

On Feb. 28, 1917, he was married to Carrie Badger at Chapel, Mo. The couple had one son, Clifford, of Rte. 1, Traer. Following their marriage, the couple farmed near Omaha, Mo., for 13 years. They came to Iowa and the Oak Grove community near Grinnell in 1930. Later, they farmed in the Newburg community for seven years and the Gilman community from 1939 to 1950. They then purchased a farm near Reinbeck, and in 1955 they moved to their farm near Traer.

Mr. Anderson is survived by his wife, Carrie; his son, Clifford; three grandchildren, William of Reinbeck and Nancy Sue and Karma Jean of Traer; two brothers, Cloyd of Mitchellville and Nigle of Grinnell; and three sisters, Mrs. John (Roxie) Crawford and Mrs. Robert (Naomi) Thompson of Grinnell and Mrs. Leo (Neva) Peck of Colorado Springs, Colo. He was preceded in death by two brothers and a sister, James, Floyd and Mrs. Flossie Thompson.

Funeral services for Mr. Anderson were held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Russell K. Boersma, pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church, officiating. Organist was Mrs. Leonard Pearce, and vocalists were Gilbert Christopher and Gordon Huyser. Pallbearers were Eldon Thompson, Howard Thompson, Delbert Crawford, Max Crawfore, Harold Whitaker and Warren Loudon.

Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.
