Mrs. Andrew Appleby is Called Suddenly From Activities of This Life.

FUNERAL SERVICES WERE HELD TUESDAY AFTERNOON.

Were Conducted by Rev. H. L. Wissler of Chester—Pall Bearers Were Nephews.

A great shock came to the many friends of Mrs. Andrew Appleby when it became known she had passed away.

On Sunday morning, May 27, in company with a number of friends she went to the Malcom Cemetery to decorate the graves of members of their family. She was apparently in her usual good health. While bending over the grave of her mother in the act of planting a flower she was suddenly stricken down and lay unconscious. Friends gathered about her and medical aid was summoned. All was done for her relief that could be done but her case apparently was beyond the help of human skill. She was taken from the cemetery to the home of her brother in Malcom and later in the day to her home in Grinnell, but only recovered consciousness for a few moments at a time. Later that evening she passed away.

Mrs. Appleby was born Emma Anna Baustain, near Kellogg, on August 19, 1870, and had reached the age of 57 years, 9 months, and 8 days. From the home near Kellogg the family moved to Sheridan Township and for a time lived in Chester Township. July 26, 1890, she was united in marriage to Andrew Appleby. To them were born seven children: Austin of Grinnell; Ida of Kansas City, Mrs. Tom Logan; Lucile of Fargo, N. D., Mrs. Fred Foster; Lillian of Grinnell, Mrs. Floyd Pugh; Clara of Atlantic, Ia., Mrs. Max Lash; Gladys of Grinnell, Mrs. Carl Jones; Clinton of Grinnell.

All are married except Clinton, who lives at home.

Mrs. Appleby was reared under the influence of the Lutheran church and was confirmed in the Lutheran Church. She was a firm believer in the teachings of the word and the saving power of the Christ. She leaves to mourn her passing her husband, her seven children, ten grand children and her five brothers, all of whom were present at the funeral services.

Funeral services were held from the home on Tuesday afternoon conducted by Rev. H. L. Wissler of the Chester church. A quartet from the Baptist church composed of Mrs. Leland Carter, Mrs. A. E. Johnson, Cecil Myers and W. A. Evans sang two numbers. Pall bearers, all nephews, were: Delmer Baustain, Elmer Baustain, Benjie Baustain, Carl Baustain, Frank Baustain, and Reno Appleby. The body was laid to rest in the Malcom cemetery.
