

Rites held for Mr. Bangham

Fred C. Bangham, 95, of Vinton; four grandchildren; Grinnell died Wednesday at five great-grandchildren; and Grinnell General Hospital. a sister, Mrs. Oscar Funeral services were held at 10 a.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. James P. Russell, pastor of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, officiating. Organist was Kathleen Heffner, and vocalist was June Schmidt. Pallbearers were James Bair, Mark Bair, Gale Douglass, Jim Peters, Jeff Phelps and Robert Schmidt. Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The son of James Albert and Sarah Elizabeth Gorsuch Bangham, he was born June 2, 1884, on a farm near Montezuma. In 1900, he moved with his family to a farm southeast of Grinnell.

He was married to Julia Anna Kelm on Jan. 26, 1910, near Malcom. The couple had five children. Mr. and Mrs. Bangham were active in rural farm affairs and in the Grinnell United Methodist Church. He was also an honorary member of the Grinnell Elks Lodge.

Mr. and Mrs. Bangham continued to farm for 34 years until retiring to Grinnell in 1944.

more Bangham of the 7, a daughter, Frances Peters of (Elizabeth) Lives of Columbus, Ohio.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Julia, on Dec. 3, 1967; three children who died in infancy, James Frank Bangham, Wilma Louise Bangham and Elizabeth Mary Bangham; two brothers, Ernest and James; and a sister, Mrs. Chris (Ida) McNally.

Correction

In the obituary for Fred C. Bangham, which appeared in the Monday edition of The Herald-Register, the name of a surviving sister was printed incorrectly.

Among survivors is Mrs. Oscar (Elizabeth) Kincaid of Columbus, Ohio.

The newspaper regrets the error.