

Ida Barnes services held

(CALVIN T.)

Ida A. Barnes, 100, of Malcom died Friday, July 17, at Embassy Manor Nursing Home in Newton where she had lived for the past few years.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Monday at the Malcom Presbyterian Church, with the Rev. William Schlobohm, pastor of the church, and the Rev. John Maze of Grinnell officiating. Organist was JoAnn Schneekloth. Fraternal rites were conducted by members of Poweshiek Rebekah Lodge No. 67 of Malcom.

Pallbearers were Jack Barnes, Keith Barnes, Harold Duffus, Harry Duffus, Alvin Foster and Scott Sherwood. Burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

Memorials may be made to the Malcom Presbyterian Church and left at the funeral home.

The daughter of William and Sarah Margaret Andes Duffus, she was born Dec. 30, 1886, on the family farm south of Malcom. She attended Pleasant Township rural school.

On Jan. 10, 1906, she was married to Calvin T. Barnes. The couple farmed near Malcom until the 1930s when they moved to Malcom and operated the Barnes Standard Oil Station.

Mrs. Barnes was a member of the Malcom Presbyterian Church and the Malcom Thimble Society and was a 50-year member and past noble grand of Poweshiek Rebekah Lodge No. 67.

Survivors include her son, Ed of Malcom; four grandchildren and nine great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Calvin, in 1958; one son, Arlo F. Barnes; one brother, Fred Duffus; and one sister, May Van Fossen.
