

Glen Barns services held

Glen "Bud" Barns, 66, of Lakewood, Calif., formerly of Grinnell, died of an aneurism Tuesday, Oct. 28, at a Lakewood hospital.

Graveside services were conducted Wednesday at Riverside Veterans Cemetery in Riverside, Calif.

Mr. Barns was a 1939 graduate of Grinnell High School. He served in the Army Air Corps during World War II and had lived in California since that time. He was maintenance supervisor of the Lakewood Shopping Center until illness forced his retirement.

He is survived by his wife, the former Joan Booth of Tama; a daughter, Linda Barns of Lakewood; and two brothers, Calvin and David, both of Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his parents, David and Florence Barns, and a sister, Ada Gopreham.
