

Mrs. Barquist rites Friday

Irene Barquist, 37, of 90 Fourth Ave., Grinnell, formerly of Minneapolis, Minn., died Wednesday morning at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with burial at Hazelwood Cemetery.

ARTHUR

Mrs. Barquist services held

Irene Barquist, 37, of 90 Fourth Ave., Grinnell, died Wednesday, Nov. 2, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Friday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Daniel Ogata, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church, and the Rev. John Epperson, pastor of the Grinnell Christian Church, officiating. Music was provided by Laura Thompson, vocalist, and Kathleen Heffner, organist.

Pallbearers were Richard Brown, Dan Carroll, Tom Hotchkin, Joseph W. Lincoln, Dale Peak, and J. Raymond Peak. Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.

Memorials in Mrs. Barquist's name may be made to the First United Presbyterian Church.

The daughter of Charles and Celia Noble Norak, she was born Jan. 8, 1896, in Grinnell. She attended Grinnell schools. Following her education she worked as a seamstress and later was employed as a sales clerk for the former Brintnall's Dry Goods Co. here.

On Nov. 29, 1923, she was married to Arthur E. Barquist in Minneapolis, Minn. The couple lived in Minneapolis where Mrs. Barquist taught sewing classes for the Singer Sewing Co. She was a member of the Grace United Methodist Church while living in Minneapolis, joining the First United Presbyterian Church when the couple returned to Grinnell in October 1932.

There are no immediate survivors. She was preceded in death by her husband in July of this year, her parents, and one sister, Marie Thompson.