

Chester Barr

Chester G. Barr, 66, of Rte. 2, Kellogg, died Sunday afternoon, Oct. 8, when the pickup truck he was working on rolled on top of him in his farmyard.

Funeral services are set for 2 p.m. Friday at the Kellogg United Methodist Church, with the Rev. Lyle Johnson officiating. The Rev. Robert Bartel, son-in-law of Mr. Barr, will conduct graveside services at Our Silent City Cemetery, Kellogg.

The Reese Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

The son of Samuel and Ethel Milligan Barr, he was born Jan. 2, 1923, in Kellogg. Mr. Barr served in the U.S. Navy during World War II. He farmed in the Kellogg area all of his life.

He was married to Irene Morrison March 14, 1947.

He was a member of the Kellogg United Methodist Church, the Amboy Grange, the Kellogg Historical Society, the Jasper County Farm Bureau, and the Jasper County A.S.C. Committee.

Surviving are his wife; two sons, Robert and David, both of Newton; two daughters, Marcene Johnson of rural Newton and Elaine Bartel of Botswana, Africa; 11 grandchildren; four brothers, John of Grinnell, Owen of Newton, and Floyd and Frank, both of Kellogg; and two sisters, Ida Weaver of Grinnell and Laurine Wortendyke of Illinois. He was preceded in death by his parents and an infant sister.

A fund in his name has been established, and contributions may be left at the funeral home.

4-7-89 1989