

---

Obituaries

HARRY E. BAUMAN

Funeral services for Harry E. Bauman, 66, of 1810 Reed, Grinnell, were held at 10:30 a.m., Monday, in the Trinity Lutheran Church, rural Malcom. Mr. Bauman died Thursday, Nov. 6, 1986, in the Grinnell General Hospital.

Rev. Marcus Reitz, pastor of St. John's Lutheran Church of Grinnell, officiated. The organist was Mrs. Teresa Ziegenmeyer and hymns sung by the congregation were "What A Friend We Have in Jesus" and "Rock of Ages". Flower attendants were Mrs. Thelma Hanssen, Mrs. Clara Foster, and Mrs. Nola Dillion.

Honorary casket-bearers were Wayne Kies, David Mallory, Jim Kies, and Lyle Bauman, Jr. Casket bearers were Richard Kies, Robert Sutfin, Roger Bauman, Wesley Alertsén, Charles Johnson, and Darrell Johnson. Interment was in the Trinity Lutheran Church Cemetery with flag presentation ceremonies conducted by members of Francis Gallagher American Legion Post #294 of Brooklyn. A memorial fund for Trinity Lutheran Church has been established.

The Nevenhoven Funeral Home of Brooklyn was in charge of arrangements.

Harry Everett Bauman, a son of Frank and Florence Whisennand Bauman, was born in Draper, S.D., April 3, 1920. He received his education in a school in South Dakota and attended the Malcom High School. He and his family moved to Malcom in 1936. He served with the U.S. Army from Jan. 15, 1943 to Aug. 23, 1943. He worked for the Des Moines Ordinance Plant in Des Moines and then engaged in farming north of Brooklyn from 1943 to 1972.

He was united in marriage to Matilda Hartkemeyer on May 24, 1941, in Memphis, Mo. They moved to Grinnell in 1982.

Mr. Bauman was a member of the Trinity Lutheran Church of Malcom, Francis Gallagher American Legion Post #294 of Brooklyn, and the Farm Bureau.

Surviving are his wife Matilda; one son and his wife, Don and Carol Bauman of Grinnell; three daughters and their husbands, Marjorie and Paul Christinson of Grinnell, Linda and Arlen Faas of Brooklyn, and Marilyn and Bill Gile of Marshalltown; two brothers, Lyle of Malcom and Harold of Stockton, Mo.; three sisters, Mrs. Velma Kies of Malcom, Alice, Mrs. Paul Mallory of Washington, Ill., and Ruby, Mrs. Floyd Cowman of Pleasantville; seven grandchildren, Alan, Brenda, and Cheryl Faas, all of Brooklyn, Laura and Diane Christinson and Tami and Jenny Bauman, all of Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his parents; four brothers, Bill, Leslie, and two infant brothers; one sister, Mrs. Lois Sutfin; and one grandson, Russell Faas.