

Virgil F. Beason

Virgil F. Beason, 75, of Lynnville died Friday, July 27, at the Montezuma Senior Home where he had lived for the past year.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Harden Funeral Home in New Sharon, with the Rev. Tom Vander Well of the Lynnville Friends Church officiating. Burial was in Woodland Cemetery, Lynnville.

The son of Frank and Daisy Huit Beason, he was born March 31, 1915, near Peoria, Iowa. He was married to Gladys Williams March 2, 1938, in Montezuma. She died in 1980.

Mr. Beason was a heavy-equipment operator and operated a saw mill between Lynnville and Searsboro. He was a former member of the Lynnville Lions Club.

Surviving are two daughters, Joyce Weiss and Janice Donohoe, both of Grinnell; six grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; and one brother, Harold of Lynnville.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife; a daughter, Roberta Mahan; one grandson and a brother, Kenneth.

Memorials may be made to Jasper County Hospice.