
DEATH OF YOUNG NEWBURG MAN

11 - 26 - 1918
Frank L. Beatty Succumbs to Attack of Pneumonia After Illness of Few Days.

Frank Leslie Beatty died at his home in Newburg Sunday last after a short illness with influenza and pneumonia.

Mr. Beatty was born in Jasper county May 5, 1882. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lorenzo Beatty. He was married June 17, 1914, to Miss Maude Mankey. One son was born to them, Burnell G., who survives his father. Mrs. Beatty also survives her husband.

Mr. Beatty was employed by A. C. Newcomer as his assistant for several years. He is spoken of in the highest terms by his employer. He was a young man of sterling qualities, and his untimely death is mourned by the entire community.

The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock. On account of prevailing conditions it was thought best to have no public funeral except at the grave. Interment was in the U. P. cemetery.
