

Alva E. Belcher
5-9-1933
Funeral Sunday

Alva Eugene, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Belcher, was born Oct. 5, 1931, and passed away at the home on South Main street, May 5, 1933, aged one year and seven months. He was sick less than a week with pneumonia.

He left to mourn his loss beside the father and mother, seven sisters, Mrs. Emma Thompson, Crawfordsville, Ind.; Mrs. Florence Kline, Pearl, Dolly, Ruth, Fern, Anna, and five brothers, Clayton, Alfred, Forrest, William and Jasper Junior, two grandmothers, and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted by Carrie A. Butler at the First Friends church on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Rosa Fowler sang "Eeckoning Hands" and "Safe in the Arms of Jesus," with Mrs. Mildred McDowell at the piano.

The pall bearers were: Pearl Harper, Florence Kline, Viola Mitchell and Isel Corrick. The body was laid to rest in Hazelwood cemetery.