

Richard W. Bell

Richard W. Bell, 51, Brier, Wash., died Friday, Dec. 10, at his home.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, Dec. 14, at Aldenwood Manor Community Church in Lynnwood, Wash., with burial in Floral Hills Cemetery in Lynnwood.

Memorials may be made to the James Dobson Focus on the Family, Colorado Springs, Colo., 80995, or to the heart foundation of the donor's choice.

He was born Aug. 16, in Grinnell, the son of Glen and Flonnie Bell. He was married to Joyce Lidka and the couple had lived in Brier where he was in the insurance sales business.

He is survived by his wife Joyce; one son Tracy Bell, Shomish, Wash.; one daughter, Judy Bell, Kirkland, Wash.; two sisters, Dorothy Breuning and Margaret Stone, and three brothers Glen Bell, Grinnell, Kenny Bell and Joe Bell.

H-R December 16, 1993