

---

Andrew Billman <sup>9</sup> Rites Saturday <sup>9</sup>/<sub>21</sub>

Andrew D. Billman, 90, a retired area farmer, died Monday night (Sept. 6) at the Lone Elm Nursing Home in Grinnell.

The son of Henry E. and Emma Arkeny Billman, Mr. Billman was born July 13, 1881, in Marshall County. He received his education in Marshall County.

In 1908, Mr. Billman married Mabel Gauley, who preceded him in death.

Mr. Billman farmed most of his life in Black Hawk and Pweshiek Counties as well as in Marshall County. He retired in 1960.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Vestals of Waterloo; four grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; five brothers — Floyd Billman of State Center, Rollie Billman of Marshalltown, Raymond Billman of Tama and Fred and Carroll Billman of Grinnell, and four sisters — Mrs. Pearl Goecke of State Center, Mrs. Sadie Vajgrt of Cornell, Wis., and Mrs. Mary Willa and Mrs. Mabel Wolf of Marshalltown.

In addition to his wife and parents, Mr. Billman was preceded in death by two brothers and one son.

Funeral services for Mr. Billman will be held at 10:30 a.m. Saturday, Sept. 11, at the Pursel-Davis Funeral Home in Marshalltown.

Burial will be in Marrietta Cemetery in Marshalltown.