Conduct Services On Saturday For Mrs. Lura Bogart

Mrs. Lura Gertrude Bogart, 79, widow of Louie Bogart, died late Thursday afternoon at her home at 692 2nd Ave. She had been confined to her home for the past eight years and cared for by her daughter, Mrs. Fred Schmidt.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Saturday from the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. Ralph Beebe of the Mayflower Home officiating. Pallbearers were Cyril Arthur, Virgil Doud, D. M. Reynolds, Everett Sanger, Alvin Sheeler and Laird Wray.

Burial was in Hazelwood cemetery.

She was born Sept. 16th, 1884, at Grinnell, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harvey LeRoy Matteson. On April 18th, 1902, she was united in marriage with Louie I. Bogart, who preceded her in death March 7th, 1963.

Mrs. Bogart had made her home in Grinnell all of her life. She was a member of the Congregational church.

Survivors include her daughter Mrs. Fred (Marie) Schmidt of Grinnell; and two cousins, Mrs. D. A. Pearce and Mrs. Harry Crowder, both of Grinnell.

She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother, Bert.
