

Mrs. Lena Bonsall Passes Away In Marcellus, Mich.

Mrs. Lena Bonsall passed away Feb. 20 at her daughter's home at Marcellus, Mich. 4-9-1934

Mrs. Allen Hunter received a letter from Winifred Weeks, telling of the death of her mother.

Lena Murray was well known here. She grew to womanhood north and west of Grinnell, at the Howard Sanders home.

She married Fred Bonsall in 1901. One daughter survives her, Mrs. Winifred Weeks, who lives at Marcellus, Mich., and also one grandson, Kenneth, age 9, and aged mother of Battle Creek, Mich.

She has had failing health the past two years, her daughter caring for her at her home.

She was a graduate of the Palmer School of Davenport and had practiced in Battle Creek, Mich. After closing her office she did nursing and worked several years in Detroit. Mrs. Bonsall has many friends here, who will mourn her going and extend their sympathy to Mrs. Weeks.
