

Stanley Borneman, 51

Stanley Borneman, 51, of Montezuma died Sept. 25, 1998 at his home.

His funeral was Tuesday morning, Sept. 29, 1998 at Siesema-Vogel Funeral Home in Dumont. The Rev. Carl Gearhart officiated.

Mr. Borneman was buried in Washington Reformed Church Cemetery in rural Ackley.

Mr. Borneman was born April 30, 1947 in Hampton to Vincent and Johannah Rewerts Borneman. He was raised in Dumont and educated at Dumont High School and NIAC.

He also lived in Hampton and was a tool and dye-maker.

He belonged to the Dumont Reformed Church.

Mr. Borneman was preceded in death by his parents, two step-mothers and a step-brother.

He is survived by one son, Travis Borneman, Mason City; two daughters, Heather Borneman, Mason City and Brooke Borneman, Hampton; a sister, Diane Krukow, Marshalltown; a step-sister, Connie Freese, Denver, Colo. and one grandchild.

MR
Sept. 30, 1998