

Rites held for

Mr. Bouma

Harvey Clifford Bouma, 60, of Lynnville died Saturday, Dec. 2, following an extended illness.

Funeral services were held Dec. 3 at the Lynnville Friends Church, with the Rev. Ernest Thompson officiating. Pallbearers were Kenneth Scull, Everett Willemsen, Edward Renaud, Glen Van Genderen, Harold Beason and Leland Beason. Flower attendants were Mrs. Arl Crews and Mrs. Ray Ver Steegh, and music was provided by Mrs. Bernice Smith.

Burial was at Woodland Cemetery, Lynnville.

The son of Louis and Grace Bouma, he was born Aug. 18, 1918. On Dec. 7, 1941, he was married to Beulah (Boots) Isobaker of Grinnell. The couple had two children, Dennis and Sandra.

Mr. Bouma was a lifelong resident of Lynnville. He worked as a plasterer and brick mason and was the leader of a dance band during the late 1940s and early 1950s. For the past seven years he had operated a bait and tackle shop in Ottumwa.

He is survived by his wife; his son, Dennis; his daughter, Sandra Richardson; a sister, Clardena Sells; and four grandchildren, all of Lynnville.
