

Debra Bradley

(RICHARD)

Debra I. "Debbie" Bradley, 46, of Greenville, Ill., formerly of Kellogg, died Tuesday, Feb. 11, at Utlaut Memorial Hospital in Greenville.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11 a.m. Friday at the First United Methodist Church in Greenville, with the Rev. Greg Courtright officiating. Burial will be in Our Silent City Cemetery, Kellogg, with the Donnell-Wiegand Funeral Home of Greenville in charge of arrangements. Graveside services are set for 10 a.m. Saturday at the cemetery, with the Rev. Bill Long officiating.

The daughter of Lester and Bessie Thompson Cope, she was born Sept. 17, 1950, in Leon and was raised in Kellogg. She was a 1968 graduate of Newton High School and earned an associate degree in business from Northeastern Missouri State College, Kirksville, Mo. She had been a resident of Greenville since 1977.

She was married to Richard E. "Bud" Bradley Aug. 14, 1976, in Brookfield, Mo.

She was a member of the First United Methodist Church of Greenville.

Surviving are her mother; one son, Chad, stationed at Melvin Price Support Center, Granite City, Ill.; three stepdaughters, Julie Chinn of Hanover, Md., Laura Christian of Oklahoma City, Okla., and Mindy Bradley of St. Louis; and two brothers, Richard Cope of Omaha and Larry Cope of Kellogg. She was preceded in death by one brother, Roger Cope.

Memorial contributions may be made to her church.

H-R February 13, 1977