George W. Braley.

George W. Braley, pioneer resident of near Kellogg, died at his home on Tuesday, July 18. At the time of his death Mr. Braley was past 82 years of age. For the past six months he had been suffering from heart trouble and it was this disease that finally caused his death. Funeral services were held at the home yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Braley had enjoyed a wide reputation in the development and growth of Kellogg. He came to that place in 1855, from his home in Vermont. During the sixty years of life spent in this community he has done his full share toward bettering the community in which he lived.

He was the father of a large family of children, all of whom are married.

He was an uncle of W. C. Braley of this city.
