

Wallace Braley

Wallace "Butch" Braley, 40, of Rte. 1, Kellogg, was found dead in his pickup truck at his home early Sunday, Dec. 20.

Graveside rites were conducted Dec. 23 at Our Silent City Cemetery in Kellogg, with the Rev. Michael Johnson, pastor of the Kellogg Christian Church, officiating. The Reese Funeral Home of Newton was in charge of arrangements.

The son of Wallace and Cynthia Echols Braley, he was born Jan. 10, 1952, in Jacksonville, Fla. he attended Kellogg and Newton schools.

Mr. Braley was a truck driver. He was a member of the Kellogg Christian Church.

Surviving are a sister, Terry Shepard of Marshalltown, and one brother, David of Newton. He was preceded in death by his parents and one sister, Geri Sue.

H-R
December
28, 1992