

Ira Brandt rites t

Ira Brandt, 84, of 1423 Reed St., Grinnell, died late Monday, Dec. 9, at Grinnell General Hospital.

The son of Nicholas and Walzie Freekan Brandt, he was born Feb. 28, 1890, in Otley, Iowa. He attended rural school near his home.

On Feb. 4, 1920, he was married to Mamie B. Paul at the Presbyterian parsonage in Grinnell. The couple had two sons, S-Sgt. Delmar Brandt, who died while serving with the U.S. Air Force in Burma in 1945, and Marvin Wayne Brandt, who died in infancy.

Following their marriage, Mr. Brandt worked on a farm for several years, and later he and Mrs. Brandt farmed near the Blue Point community south of Grinnell. They moved to Grinnell in 1959.

During World War I, Mr. Brandt served with the U.S. Army. He had attended the Oak Grove Friends Church, and more recently he attended the Grinnell First United Presbyterian Church. He was a 40-year member of the American Legion in Grinnell, and was also a member of the World War I Barracks and the Farm Bureau.

Survivors include his wife, Mamie; and two sisters, Mrs. Charles (Dora) Thompson of rural Grinnell and Mrs. Alfred (Nettie) Paul of Grinnell. He was preceded in death by his two sons, Delmar and Marvin; his parents; and one brother, James Brandt.

Funeral services for Mr. Brandt were held at 2 p.m. today at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Daniel I. Ogata, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church, and Tom Good, of the Oak Grove Friends Church, officiating. Organist was Mrs. Eugene Holley, and pallbearers were M. C. Brooks, Ola Gildersleeve, Virgil Lincoln, Albert Neighbors, Bert F. Wells, and Rolla Whitaker. Flower bearers were Mrs.

12-19-1974

Ira Brandt services held

Funeral services for Ira Brandt, 84, of 1423 Reed St., Grinnell, who died Dec. 9 at Grinnell General Hospital, were held at 2 p.m. Dec. 12 at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Daniel I. Ogata, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church, and Tom Good, pastor of the Oak Grove Friends Church, officiating.

Organist was Mrs. Eugene Holley, and pallbearers were M. C. Brooks, Ola Gildersleeve, Virgil Lincoln, Albert Neighbors, Bert F. Wells, and Rolla Whitaker. Flowerbearers were Mrs. Warren Lincoln and Mrs. Albert Neighbors.

Graveside rites were conducted by Don Baker; commander, W. K. Richardson, chaplain; and members of the Veterans Ceremonial Unit of Grinnell.

Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The son of Nicholas and Walzie Freekan Brandt, he was born Feb. 28, 1890, at Otley, Iowa. He attended rural schools near his home. On Feb. 4, 1920, he was married to Mamie B. Paul in the Presbyterian Church parsonage in Grinnell. The couple had two sons, S-Sgt. Delmar Brandt, who died Jan. 24, 1945, in Burma while serving with the U.S. Air Force, and Marvin Wayne Brandt, who died in infancy.

Following their marriage, Mr. Brandt worked on a farm for several years, and later he and Mrs. Brandt farmed nar the Blue Point community south of Grinnell. In 1959 they moved to Grinnell. During World War I, Mr. Brandt served with the U.S. Army. He had attended the Oak Grove Friends Church, and recently the Grinnell First United Presbyterian Church. He was a 40-year member of the American Legion in Grinnell. He was also a member of the World War Barracks and the Farm Bureau.

Survivors include his wife, Mamie; his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lavern (Margaret) Morrison of rural Grinnell; and two sisters, Mrs. Charles (Dora) Thompson of rural Grinnell and Mrs. Alfred (Nettie) Paul of Grinnell. He was preceded in death by his two sons, his parents, and one brother, James Brandt.

12/19/74

Ira Brandt, 84, of 1423 Reed St., Grinnell, died Dec. 9 at Grinnell General Hospital. The son of Nicholas and Walzie Freekan Brandt, he was born Feb. 28, 1890, in Otley, Iowa. He attended rural school near his home.

Mr. Brandt, 70, married Mamie B. Paul in the Grinnell area in 1919. The couple had two sons, S-Sgt. Delmar Brandt, who died Jan. 24, 1945, in Burma in 1945, and Marvin Wayne Brandt, who died in infancy.

Following their marriage, Brandt worked on a farm for several years, and later he and Mrs. Brandt farmed near the Blue Point community south of Grinnell. They moved to Grinnell in 1959.

During World War I, Mr. Brandt served with the U.S. Army, and he reported the Oak Grove Friends Church, and was reported to be a member of the Grinnell First Presbyterian Church. He was a former member of the American Legion in Grinnell, and was also a member of the World War I Veterans and the Farm Bureau.

Survivors include his wife, Mamie; his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lavern (Margaret) Morrison of rural Grinnell; and two sisters, Mrs. Charles (Dora) Thompson of rural Grinnell and Mrs. Alfred (Nettie) Paul of Grinnell. He was preceded in death by his two sons, Delmar and Marvin, his parents, and his father, James Brandt. Funeral services for Mr. Brandt were held at 2 p.m. today, Dec. 12, at the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. Daniel I. Ogata, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church, officiating. Organist was Mrs. Eugene Holley, and pallbearers were M.C. Brooks, Ola Gildersleeve, Virgil Lincoln, Albert Neighbors, Bert F. Wells, and Rolla Whitaker. Flowerbearers were Mrs. Warren Lincoln and Mrs. Albert Neighbors.

Graveside rites were conducted by Don Baker, commander, W.K. Richardson, chaplain, and members of the Veterans Ceremonial Unit of Grinnell.

Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.

Ira Brandt services held

d. 12/19/74

Funeral services for Ira Brandt, 84, of 1423 Reed St., Grinnell, who died Dec. 9 at Grinnell General Hospital, were held at 2 p.m. Dec. 12 at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Daniel I. Ogata, pastor of the First United Presbyterian Church, and Tom Good, pastor of the Oak Grove Friends Church, officiating.

Organist was Mrs. Eugene Holley, and pallbearers were M.C. Brooks, Ola Gildersleeve, Virgil Lincoln, Albert Neighbors, Bert F. Wells, and Rolla Whitaker. Flowerbearers were Mrs. Warren Lincoln and Mrs. Albert Neighbors.

Graveside rites were conducted by Don Baker, commander, W.K. Richardson, chaplain, and members of the Veterans Ceremonial Unit of Grinnell.

Burial was at Hazelwood Cemetery.

The son of Nicholas and Walzie Freekan Brandt, he was born Feb. 28, 1890, at Otley, Iowa. He attended rural schools near his home. On Feb. 4, 1920, he was married to Mamie B. Paul in the Presbyterian Church parsonage in Grinnell. The couple had two sons, S-Sgt. Delmar Brandt, who died Jan. 24, 1945, in Burma while serving with the U.S. Air Force, and Marvin Wayne Brandt, who died in infancy.

Following their marriage, Mr. Brandt worked on a farm for several years, and later he and Mrs. Brandt farmed near the Blue Point community south of Grinnell. In 1959 they moved to Grinnell. During World War I, Mr. Brandt served with the U.S. Army. He had attended the Oak Grove Friends Church, and recently the Grinnell First United Presbyterian Church. He was a 40-year member of the American Legion in Grinnell. He was also a member of the World War Barracks and the Farm Bureau.

Survivors include his wife, Mamie; his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Lavern (Margaret) Morrison of rural Grinnell; and two sisters, Mrs. Charles (Dora) Thompson of rural Grinnell and Mrs. Alfred (Nettie) Paul of Grinnell. He was preceded in death by his two sons, his parents, and one brother, James Brandt.