

Leo Breese, Long Time Resident Here Dies In California

H-R May 12, 1955
Leo L. Breese, native of Searsboro and resident of Grinnell for nearly 30 years, died suddenly at his home at Oakland, Calif., Tuesday, May 10. He was 49 years old.

Brother of Harold Breese of Grinnell, he has lived in California the past 16 years and had never visited here since going west.

Born at Searsboro, he was reared here by Charlie Needham and the late Mrs. Needham and for a time was employed on the Herald-Register. Employed at Oakland by a furniture company, he was married three years ago. The couple had no children.

Funeral services are being held today, Thursday, at Oakland.
