

L.H. Bridges services held

Funeral services for Lee Hoyt Bridges, 90, formerly of Grinnell, were held Feb. 1 at the First United Methodist Church in Tullahoma, Tenn. Burial was at Rose Hill Gardens near Tullahoma.

Mr. Bridges died Wednesday, Jan. 26.

He was a retired traffic manager for Lannom Manufacturing Co. He was a native of Nebraska.

Following his service in the Motor Transport Corps during World War I, Mr. Bridges moved to Grinnell, where he married the former Lucinda Adkins. He was active in the Masons, serving as master of the lodge, and was also a member of the Order of Eastern Star. He was employed at the Morrison-Shults Co. here. In 1928, Mr. Bridges was transferred to the Lannom Manufacturing Co. in Tullahoma.

Survivors include his wife; a son, James Bridges of Nashville, Tenn.; a daughter, Barbara Bridges, also of Nashville; and two grandchildren.