Raymond Broders

Raymond Reed Broders, 81, of Grinnell died Friday, Sept. 23, at Veterans Hospital in Iowa City.

Funeral services were conducted Monday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Daniel I. Ogata officiating. Organist was Margaret Wheeler. Pallbearers were Kenneth King, Raymond King, Grover Loftin, Floyd Manfull, Robert Timm and Wesley Wallis.

Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery.

The son of Henry and Caroline Bucheneau Broders, he was born Aug. 7, 1913, in Sheridan Township. He attended rural school and later worked for his brother, Virgil, on a farm in Sheridan Township. He was a veteran of the U.S. Army, serving during World War II.

He was married to Arlene Crotty in Boston, Mass., where the couple lived. Mr. Broders worked for many years in the Navy shipyards. Following his wife's death in 1972, he returned to Grinnell.

He was a member of the Eagles Lodge and a former member of the American Legion.

Surviving are his brother, Virgil of Grinnell, and a sister, Wilma Wallis of Tucson, Ariz. He was preceded in death by his parents; his wife, Arlene; three sisters, Elsie Osland, Mabel Broders and Francis King; and three brothers, Ellard, Delmar and Arthur.

Memorial contributions in Mr. Broders' name may be made to Hazelwood Cemetery.
