

Monday, December 14, 1964

Mark D. Brooks Dies Monday At Masonic Home

Mark D. Brooks, 66, former Grinnell businessman, died Monday of a heart ailment at the Masonic Home in Perry. He had been in poor health for some time.

Brooks is a former operator of the Three Elms and Pioneer Inn restaurants here.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday afternoon from Dunn's funeral home in Des Moines. Interment was in the Masonic cemetery there.

Survivors include two sons and two brothers.