Mrs. Brown services held

Mrs. Betty Arvilla Brown, 58, the wife of Raymond C. Brown of 608 Spring St., died Saturday afternoon at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines. Her 2½-year illness was diagnosed as cancer.

Funeral services for Betty A. Brown were held at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, Oct. 28, at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Keith Briggs, pastor of the First Friends Church, officiating. Organist was Mrs. Barbara Lein and vocalist was Mrs. Sherry Bauer.

Pallbearers were Patrick Boat, Kenneth Burnham, Jim Flowers, Jerry Nicol, Steve Pollock and John Stephens.

Burial was in the Rock Creek Cemetery west of Grinnell.

Born Aug. 20, 1922, in Moulton, Iowa, she was the daughter of Lloyd G. and Lorella Henderson Luman. She received education in the Humeston school, graduating from Humeston High School in 1940.

She married Charles DeVore. The couple had two daughters, Judith and Charlene. She made her home in Des Moines for 28 years.

Following her marriage to Raymond Brown on June 13, 1968, in Creston, the couple lived in San Antonio, Tex., for five years before returning to Creston to live.

She was a member of the Humeston Methodist Church, the Greater Creston Community Hospital Auxiliary and the Apartment Managers Association. For the past year, Mr. and Mrs. Brown had been associated with Goen's Funeral Home in Creston.

They had recently moved to Grinnell to be near their family.

She is survived by her husband; her two daughters, Mrs. Sammie (Judith) LaChapelle of Ft. Wainwright, Ala., and Charlene Deatherage of Grinnell; and a sister, Mrs. Dale (Dorothy) Adkins of Grinnell.

She was preceded in death by her father and mother.

Should friends desire, memorials may be made to the Muscular Dystrophy Association and left at the Smith Funeral Home.
