

. . . . JUNE 8, 1961 —————

Funeral Services
For Fred Brown
Held Saturday

Fred, son of James and Kathryn Brown, was born near Marengo, Mar. 22, 1875, and died at his home in Montezuma June 1, at the age of 86 years.

He attended the local rural schools and helped on the home farm. Feb. 23, 1904, he was united in marriage to Anna Bell McMains. They made their home on a farm in Mahaska county until 1921, when they moved to a farm near Independence. They later returned to Barnes City to make their home for over 20 years. About three years ago they retired and moved to Montezuma.

Mr. Brown was a faithful and generous attendant of his church. He was a good Bible scholar.

In addition to his wife he is survived by a sister, Mrs. Laura Alleley, Greeley, Colo., several nieces and nephews, other relatives and many friends.

Funeral services were held at 1:30 p. m. Saturday at the Steffy Funeral Home conducted by the Rev. George Snyder. Miss Alice Underwood played the funeral numbers.

Burial was in the Masonic-IOOF cemetery. Casket bearers were Leslie Steele, Harold Ehret, Roger Sampson, Roy Stevens, Autumn Watts and Roy Braden.
