

Former resident, Keith Brown, 18, dies in rescue

A former Grinnell resident, Keith Brown, 18, of Stuart, Neb., suffocated in a grain bin accident recently, while attempting to rescue a 14-year-old youth who had fallen into the grain and also suffocated. Funeral services were held at the Stuart Community Church Thursday, June 30.

Surviving are his parents, Franklin and Bonnie (Mosness) Brown of Stuart, Neb., a sister, Mrs. David (Dianna Lee) Rich, of York, Neb., a brother, Kevin, who lives at home, and his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Burton Mosness of Cedar Rapids, and Mrs. Nelson Brown of Greenfield.

Keith was born in Cedar Rapids on December 2, 1958 and lived in Grinnell from 1959 to 1966. He attended Cooper and Fairview Schools. The family moved from Norfolk, Neb., to Stuart in 1974.