

Mrs. Amanda 9-8-1933 Buchanan Dies

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon from the Snyder Brothers Chapel for Mrs. Amanda Dusenberry Buchanan who passed away Tuesday evening at her home, 1120 Spring street, where she lived with her devoted son, Clint Buchanan. She had been an invalid for the past thirty-three years and was a sweet and patient sufferer. She would have been 76 years old on her next birthday.

The services were conducted by Rev. Robert Inglis and Mrs. Margery Bouma, accompanied by Mrs. Grace Peck, sang "Face to Face With Christ, My Savior" and "Abide With Me." Pall bearers were Theodore Risse, Dr. March Green, Con See, Worth Belden, Charles Budd and Chris Vogt. Burial was in Hazelwood cemetery.

Mrs. Buchanan before her marriage was Amanda Dusenberry, the daughter of Frederick Dusenberry and his wife Mary. She was born Nov. 28, 1857, in Morgantown, W. Va., and while a child moved with her parents to Geneseo, Ill., where she grew to womanhood. In 1885 she was united in marriage with Harry Buchanan, a brother of Mrs. T. C. Cessna of this city and in 1891 they moved to Grinnell, where her home has been ever since. Mr. Buchanan died in 1892 and since that time she and her only son, Clinton, have made their home together.

Mrs. Buchanan was the last of a family of ten children. Her son is the only near relative surviving.

Those who came from a distance to attend the funeral were Sherm Buchanan and Mrs. Edith Willis of Des Moines and Ben Buchanan, Mrs. John M. Buchanan and Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Buchanan, all of Montour.
