

--Rebecca McNeely was born in Green county, Penn., Feb. 18, 1825, and with her parents moved to Guernsey county, Ohio, 1840, where in 1845 she was married to Jackson Buchanan. In 1855 they came to Iowa settling in Scott county and in 1872 they located at Victor where in 1893 Mr. Buchanan died. Some five years ago Mrs. Buchanan came to Grinnell making her home with Mrs. J. N. Gortner of this city. She has been in failing health for many years and in her last days was a great sufferer but was ever patient and gave assurance of her faith and trust in God. She was converted and joined the Methodist Episcopal church in early childhood and was ever a loyal and faithful member. She leaves four children, Mrs. J. N. Gortner and T. H. Buchanan of this city, Mrs. Wm. Funk, of Colorado Springs, Colo., and J. M. Buchanan of Los Angeles, Cal. Short services were held at the residence of J. N. Gortner on Wednesday afternoon and the body was taken to Victor and after funeral services in the M. E. church, conducted by the Rev. Mr. Zimmerman she was laid to rest by the side of her husband in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.
