Hale Bump, Long Time Resident Of Grinnell, Dies

H-R Aug 20, 1945

Everett Hale Bump, who has lived most of his long life of over 90 years in Grinnell, died Sunday evening at the home of his son, Wesley Bump, with whom he has been making his home since the death of his wife some months ago. Born in 1854 Mr. Bump came to this vicinity in 1862, when he was eight years old, living first in the Westfield community but spending all of his adult life in Grinnell. He was employed in several Grinnell meat markets during his long and active life. He had seen Grinnell grow from a struggling settlement to a city and had always been identified with every movement for good in his home town.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon from the Smith Funeral Home.
